

AIM:- Working with vCenter Server Appliance

- Installing vcenter
 - Click on run for already we have created , otherwise create a new one
 - Navigate to this file location after clicking on vcsa installer and click on installer

- Navigate to this file location after clicking on vcsa installer and click on installer.

- Click on install.
- Select Deploy vCenter and Click on next.
- Type your esxi's ip address and username as root and password as Name!098.
- Name it and give password.
- Select ting of minimum 14 gb ram version.
- Click on enable thin disk and Click on next
- Select DHCP and Click on next.
- Click on finish.
- When Installation is at 80% go to Browser and login to vmware esxi access page using esxi IP .
- After logging in go to vm and Run the Vcenter's VM
- Once the Stage 1 Installation completed click on Continue.
- Give your domain name and credentials.
- Installation will take around 10 minutes.
- Once installation Completed ,Click on Close.
- Open a new tab in browser and type the ip which occurred on completion wizard.
- Here! We Successfully Installed Vcenter.
- Navigate to vcenter appliance via ip in browser
- Right click on ip address->New Datacenter • Give your region name here it is BOMBAY_REGION
- A Region will be created right click on it select cluster
- Put ip address of your esxi server .
- Type root as username and give it a password
- Click on next
- Select Evaluation License Click on next.
- Select Disabled and Click on next.
- Select Region which you created previously here it is BOMBAY_REGION.
- Navigating vcenter.
- Go to home page by clicking on vSphere Client and Select Licensing
- Assign to evaluation.

- Type Your License key.

- Now we have created cluster and connected to a host and license key activated

- Navigate to host configure->Time Configuration Click on ADD SERVICE

- Type esxi ip address.

- In Vcenter management in new tab at port 5480 go to time and put ip address

- Select time zone.

- Network Time Protocol is showing

-

- Navigate to this file location after clicking on vcsa installer and click on installer.

