

AIM:- Using Templates and Clones

1. • Go to vcenter□
2. • Create a new virtual machine on your host.□
3. • Click on next.□
4. • Select datastore and Click on next.□
5. • Select esxi 7 and Click on next.□
6. • Guest OS Select Cent os because it is open source.□
7. • Upload iso file of OS.□
8. • Select data store.□
9. • Connect at power on. and click on next.□
 - Click on Finish .□
10. • Right Click on The Virtual Machine You Just Created.□
11. • Give name it a name and select host and then Click next.□
12. • Click on next .□
13. • Select VMFS.□
14. • Select customize the os and power on the virtual machine and Click on next.□
15. • Click on next.□
16. • Click on Finish.□
17. • Here we created clone of our virtual machine.□
18. • Navigate to policies and profiles ->VM Customization Specifications.□
19. • Name it and Select Linux and Click on next.□
20. • Fill the Required credentials.□
21. • Select use the virtual machine .□
22. • Give it a password here it is Name!098.□
23. • Select According to your time zone.□

- Select use Standard network Settings.□
- Click on Finish.□

- VM customization and specification Done.□

Right Click on Virtual Machine and Click on Deploy from template and name it and Click on next.

- Select Your Host.□
- Select Your Storage and Click on Next.□
- Slect Customize the os and Select Power on the virtual machine after creation.□
- Click On Next.□
- Click on Finish.□
- Here we created rom template.□